SAFETY FIRST

Going on a picnic? Have fun . . . but be careful. If you are taking food only a short distance to a picnic spot, take only the amount you think will be eaten. Remember that any meat held for more than a couple of hours at summer temperatures is dangerous to eat. Many salads spoil quickly, too, when left out of the refrigerator, so keep this in mind when planning a picnic supper.

But picnic suppers can be served at home! How easy, quick, and nutritious to pick up a variety of the many luncheon meats and salads available at the markets . . . cold plate, with luncheon meats, hard-cooked eggs, and several of the salads . . . macaroni, potato, health, cole slaw, and gelatine salads . . . from sour cream to cherry mint to choose from.

PROTEIN FOODS

How about a tube steak barbecue, as some pre-teenagers are calling the proverbial frankfurter. With a little imagination the hot dog can become a glamorous entree to any meal . . . picnic or otherwise. Another easy-to-prepare meat is a boiled beef dinner with horseradish sauce . . . Umm!

CHICKEN AND TURKEY . . . plentiful, full of nutrition and economical.

PORK and LAMB . . . short supply.

SHRIMP . . . fresh, canned, frozen and breaded. Abundant. It makes no difference whether shrimp be large or small . . . only your personal preference . . . except size does affect the price per pound and the amount of preparation time. Jumbo (15 or less per pound) cost the most, but they take the least time to peel and devein. Small (60 or more per pound) cost the least but take the most preparation time.

Raw shrimp is often called "green shrimp." Fresh shrimp is available in or out of the shell. One pound of raw shrimp in the shell yields about 1/2 pound cooked, peeled, deveined shrimp.

Canned shrimp has been precooked and is ready to use right from the can.

You may purchase frozen shrimp either raw or precooked. Prepare according to the directions on the package.

PLENTIFUL FRUITS and VEGETABLES

We have word from Kern County that Cardinal grapes are finishing and growers are starting to harvest Thompson Seedless.

Living by God's Time

"Living by God's Time" is the theme of this year's Daily Vacation Bible School at Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church, 3343 W. Artesia Blvd. Designed to satisfy every member of the family, and under the direction of Mrs. Herman Kille, the school will be conducted July 31 through Aug. 10. Children, ages four to twelve, will attend morning classes from 9 a.m. to noon, and specially planned classes for young people and adults will be held each evening 6:45 to 9 p.m.

Department leaders, Mrs. Clinton Beeton, Pre-school;

Mrs. Joe Tomblint, Primary; and Mrs. Jack Cooper, Junior; with their staff of assistants, are prepared to help each youngster "Have the time of his life, living by God's time," with specially prepared Bible stories, interesting crafts, refreshments and games every day. A special added feature will be the "Summer Christmas Tree," with a missionary emphasis and guided study of life in Japan. Mrs. Douglas Mikami, whose ancestry came from that land, is in charge. Every evening, the adults and youth will be led into a time of discovery of life's true values by Herman Kille and Gary Tisor. James Brown, soon to leave for the mission field, will conduct a class, answering the "Why's" for teenagers. Rev. Monrad Berge, pastor of Hope Church, will speak briefly each evening in a time of devotion and inspiration. To spark up the evening refreshments and crafts will be enjoyed by everyone. An unusually good time can be expected by all who attend. Those wishing to register may do so by calling DA 3-5146 or FR 1-5329.

Girl Scout Troop 2080

Girl Scout Troop 2080 celebrated its fourth birthday with a bowling party at South Bay Bowling Center. Christine Pritchard received a trophy for having the highest individual score. Trophy for "Best Sport" was given to Gwenda Hawkins. The Alley Scouts, Rita Scott, Darlean Eaton and Lorraine Gray, also received trophies for having the highest team score. All the trophies were given to the troop by its sponsor, R. W. Whittam. After bowling, the Scouts went into the Steak Knife restaurant for birthday cake, ice cream, and Shirley Temple cocktails.
